- Healthcare and Hygiene
- Shelter and utilities
- Costs directly related to the child's welfare

Terms and Conditions:

- Sponsorship will be paid quarterly, but there may be unforeseen delays which the partner organization and Islamic Relief USA will do its best to minimize.
- The sponsorship does not create a legal guardianship or adoption.
- Funds will be managed by the listed guardian in the best interest of the sponsored child and family, responsibly and ethically. If it is found that the sponsorship money has been misused, Islamic Relief USA and [partner] reserve the right to end sponsorship.
- Sponsorship may be terminated if circumstances of the sponsored orphan and family change.
- Home visits are a requirement of the orphan sponsorship program. In exceptional circumstances phone calls may suffice.
- Islamic Relief USA will end the sponsorship of the sponsored orphan when he/she reaches the age of 18.
- The sponsored orphan should be enrolled in and attending school as a requirement for the continuation of sponsorship, unless an exemption is agreed upon by IRUSA and [partner] team.
- If the sponsored orphan and family are absent from their residence without a valid reason for 3 months or more and cannot be reached, Islamic Relief USA will end the sponsorship.
- If the family income increases above the threshold limit, Islamic Relief USA reserves the right to end the sponsorship.
- Islamic Relief USA and its partner reserves the right to decide how many children may be supported in the same family.
- If funds sent to guardians of sponsored orphans remain unused for 3 months, Islamic Relief USA and its partner reserves the right to withdraw the money to use for other sponsored orphans.
- Islamic Relief USA and its partner has no obligation or responsibility towards the sponsored orphan and family aside from when the sponsored orphan and family is a part of the orphan sponsorship program.
- The sponsored orphan and family will receive visits and/or wellness checks by field office staff as they feel needed but at minimum once a year. The guardian agrees to cooperate in facilitating these visits or checks.
- The guardian will provide all and any documentation required for the orphan sponsorship program if requested.
- The guardian will provide accurate information about the sponsored orphan's condition and situation.
- The guardian will keep the partner office staff informed of any changes to their address, contact information, and situation. Failure to do so may result in cancellation of the sponsorship.

Child Protection:

- Islamic Relief USA and [partner] are committed to protecting the security, privacy, and dignity of all its sponsored orphans and their families and will aim to protect the sponsored orphan from physical or emotional abuse.
- If the field office staff or any Islamic Relief USA representatives behaves inappropriately towards the guardian or the sponsored orphan, the guardian and the child have the right to complain without it affecting the sponsorship.
- The guardian must be provided with the most updated contact information for the partner and case workers.
